November 2017

Dear InSEA Members

In the past 6 months our web site was attacked, and we had to rebuilt it again. It was a long process and we wish to thank you for your patience. Now you can enter in the portal and experiment the new features, after login in, you will have a button for 'My profile' on the top horizontal bar, this is the protected area for members where you can access to your membership information; access to the International journal of Education Through Art (IJETA) , print the membership card; search members; and send us news about art education and suggestions. Please tell us what you think about the functioning of the site so we can improve it . If you cannot login, because you forgot your password , you can request a new password using your email in the login menu. If you have difficulties in getting in, do not hesitate in contact us (general: insea@insea.org and membership: insea.treasurer.membership@gmail.com)

If you want to send contents to the website in any one of the listed sections, we will love to receive it!
We are looking forward to have your feedback and collaboration.
Teresa Torres de Eca (InSEA President)
